On April 10, 2019, the Court heard oral argument on the application for leave to appeal the October 24, 2017 judgment of the Court of Appeals and the application for leave to appeal as cross-appellants. On order of the Court, the applications are again considered, and they are DENIED, because we are not persuaded that the questions presented should be reviewed by this Court.

VIVIANO, J., did not participate due to a familial relationship with the presiding circuit court judge in this case.
